■ Press conference with Chairman of Financial Stability Forum, Mario Draghi

The global federation Financial Stability Forum (FSF) is holding a meeting in Stockholm on 22-23 January with participants from more than 20 countries.

After the conclusion of the meeting on 23 January, a press conference will be held with the Governor of the Italian central bank, Mario Draghi, who is also the Chairman of FSF. The press conference will be held at the Riksbank at 1 p.m., entrance via Brunkebergstorg 11, press cards must be shown. Please let us know if you will attend by contacting Tommy Persson, press officer, on tel. +46-8-787 03 99 or e-mail tommy.persson@riksbank.se.

The FSF is a relatively new forum and its purpose is to promote financial stability through enhanced information exchange and international cooperation in financial market supervision and surveillance. It was established in 1999 and consists of representatives of the G7 and five other countries and a number of organisations such as the G7, the World Bank, the Bank of International Settlements (BIS), the IMF and the OECD. Sweden is not a member.

Further information can be found on the Riksbank's website, www.riksbank.se and on the FSF website, www.fsforum.org.
