

Curriculum vitae

Barbro Wickman-Parak
Born 15 February 1947

1966 Upper secondary school graduation, Haparanda.

1970 B.A. (political science and economics) Stockholm University.

1970 Employed at Sveriges Riksbank, economist, general researcher.

1972-1973 Maternity leave, resident in Kiruna. Studies in Finnish.

1974 Sveriges Riksbank, Economic Department.

1978 Head of coordination and information group, Sveriges Riksbank's Economic Department.

1982 Credit Market Department Sveriges Riksbank, Director of Communications, researcher.

1985, September. On study leave from Sveriges Riksbank.

1988 June, Subject teacher qualification, History-political science study programme (160 points).

1988 Autumn term to end of spring term 1991. Teacher at LO (Swedish Trade Union Confederation) Folk High School.

1991, July - 1995, August. Employed at National Institute of Economic Research, investigator in Riksbank investigation, then part of group on international economic tendencies.

1995, September - 2000, December. Employed as economist at Sweden Post /Postgirot economic secretariat. Forecasting economic developments and interest rates. Publication; regular financial newsletter.

2001 January, employed as economist at SBAB. Took part in building up SBAB's economic secretariat. Publication of, among other things, SBAB's economic tendency reports, newsletter on mortgage interest rates and the quarterly publication on estate agent/housing trends.

2003 January – Chief economist SBAB.