■ Appointment of Acting Head of the Monetary Policy Department

Background

Given that the General Council has appointed Per Jansson to the Executive Board of the Riksbank, it has been deemed appropriate that he leave his post as Head of the Monetary Policy Department with immediate effect. An Acting Head should therefore be appointed until a new Head of Department has been appointed and takes up the post.

Proposed decision

The Executive Board has decided to appoint Marianne Nessén, who is currently Deputy Head of the Monetary Policy Department, as Acting Head of Department from and including 2 December 2011 until a new Head of Department takes up the post.

While serving as Acting Head of Department, Marianne Nessén will receive her normal salary with a supplement of SEK 5000 per month.
