

Press Release

17 MARCH 1997 No 14

Sveriges Riksbank on the Internet

As of today, Monday, you can visit the Riksbank (Sweden's central bank) on the Internet (<http://www.riksbank.se>). There you will find general information about the Riksbank, press releases, speeches, selected statistics, publications and facts about Swedish banknotes and coins. There is also information about the Governing Board, including agendas and protocols from Board meetings.

The Inflation Reports will be available in HTML as well as PDF format; the latter can be downloaded electronically. For the time being, other publications are ordered via e-mail.

Most of the material is available in an English version.
