4 JULY 2000 NO. 42

The Riksbank signs a new primary dealer agreement with Nordbanken and Unibank

Nordbanken AB (publ) and Unibank A/S are primary dealers on the money and bond market and on the foreign exchange market. The institutions are now part of the same group, Nordic Baltic Holding (currently changing its name). The Riksbank has signed a new primary dealer agreement for the money and bond market with Nordbanken and Unibank, which replaces the former agreements with respective institutions. The new agreement entered into force on 3 July 2000.

The existing primary dealer agreements on the foreign exchange market with Nordbanken and Unibank are for the time being unchanged.
